

Daisy Buchanan Hat

design by Brenda Castiel

Description

The Great Gatsby -- the great American novel. The elegant and pampered Daisy Buchanan is the object of Gatsby's affection.

She would have worn a hat like this one -- it's the classic shape of the Jazz Age -- the cloche -- and the inspiration for this design. It has a lace crown, in an unfussy, modern, geometric pattern of chevrons; a horizontal golden silk band with a cable design, for glitz and glamour; and a zigzag lace edging in silk to frame the face. I think Daisy would have loved it!

Wear it low over the eyebrows -- no one will know whether you're having a bad hair day!

Sizes

One size

Finished Measurements

Hat measures 19"/48 cm circumference. It is stretchy and should fit most adult heads. The brim will come down to the eyebrows, or lower, depending on how you adjust it.

Yarn

The Sanguine Gryphon 'Gaia Fingering', 200yd/2oz, 60% silk/40% cashmere, 1 skein, shown in Snows of Kilimanjaro (MC) and 1 skein, shown in All Creatures Great and Small (CC).

Needles

US 4/3.5 mm, 2 straight, or 1 long circular needle, or size needed to attain gauge.
US 4/3.5 mm, either DPNs or 2 circular needles, or one longer circular needle (for Magic Loop), for knitting in the round, or size needed to attain gauge.

